'CELEBRATE ROTARY'

Presidential prattle

Well here we are with more than half the Rotary year behind us - and what a lot has happened since the last "Prattle". The Grotto is over and the final total of £12,250 is one we can be very proud of.

We have had the Xmas party (who will forget the Crystal Chords?) and experienced another of Sam's "interesting" quizzes, as well as talks by Gordon (more about the characters he has encountered than a traditional "my job"), on Romania and on Foundation. Gordon has accepted the challenge and will be our President on 1st July 2006.

Yet another prompt (the final one!) - please put the date, 11th March, for President's night into your diary.

The programme ahead looks interesting with the Fun Run on April 23rd a particular highlight. The event is approved and a key sponsor in place. - we will need a lot of support on the day, but before then there is a lot of planning and work to be done. The Run represents the second of our future three per year fund raisers, with Kelvin planning the Golf Day, which will be held in August, as the third.

Remember that we are having a new members' evening on 20th April - a great chance to bring along a friend or two to see what we are all about.

Maybe only a Prattle or two left in this Rotary year - let's keep up the activity level and complete the year with a few new members.

President Michael

Council capers

December

District: Our ladies have declined, once again, to form an Inner Wheel club.

Money: General Account, £1339 of which £556 due for RIBI capitation fees. A £500 loan has been made to the Charity Account. Charity Account £269, with an outstanding cheque of £105 for Emergency Boxes and £258 due to Bramhall High School.

Club Services: March 23, 2005 will be a Scatter Night.

Social: Centenary meal 16 February (partners invited), Chester races 5 May, Brass and Beatles 26 June, President's BBQ 3 July, Edinburgh Tattoo 6 August.

International & Foundation: Supply of Emergency Boxes giving cause for concern – being followed up. Henry looking into a possible music evening with potential to raise up to £1500.

Ways and Means: Progress on the Grotto reported. Organisation of the 'Fun Run' in progress.

Community Service: Valley School and Beechwood Cancer care have been advised that unfortunately our funds currently do not allow us to respond to their recent requests.

'Coping with life': at our meeting on 23 February up to 10 members of Bramhall High will join us – meal costs to the club.

'Excitement of science': tickets applied for – students may be requested to pay where they can.

Morrisons collection: names submitted.

Daily Mail charity funding draw: Valley School holiday project submitted.

Stroke Awareness day: Sponsors being sought.

Ladybridge Club: we have been asked to help source a computer for a computer skills course. Being investigated.

January

General: The club will offer to help RC Cheadle with the provision of items for some AquaBoxes.

Money: The Charity account has effectively £850 after commitments. All subscriptions have now been received.

Community Service: A bid for a charity grant from the Daily Mail to help Valley School has failed. On 23 February 10 members of staff have been invited to join us at the meeting on 'Coping with life'. A plaque to be installed at the new copse in Bramhall Park commemorating past members is being progressed. A presentation of a cheque to the Neuromuscular Centre is being planned.

Social: The Christmas Dinner made a profit of ca. £100. The Club's Centennial Dinner may be changed to another date awaiting availability of the function room.

Ways & Means: Insurance requirements for the Fun Run are being investigated.

International & Foundation: The Tsunami collection in Bramhall raised £1130. The money will be routed via District. Henry is progressing a music evening to raise additional charity funds - no ticket selling by the club will be required. The cheque sent for Emergency Boxes may have been lost. A new cheque will be sent, once the situation is clarified.

Club Services & Membership: Membership forms for David McKeith and Dr Dev are being provided. A possible new members evening is being considered for April 20. A meeting with the Speakers Club will take place soon to discuss room allocations for meetings.

Whose in charge from June 2005?

At the recent election of Officers for the club, the following were elected after a close fought, but fair contest, with only a minimal amount of arm twisting:

President: John Thewlis
Vice President: Gordon Jackson
Treasurer: Tony Burch
Secretary: David Rabone

Congratulations to all – you can count on our support!

Didn't we do well!

The Christmas Grotto was a huge success. The final figures are not compiled yet (January 5) but we all agree within a couple of hundred pounds.

TICKETS for 2020 children	£10100
GIFT AID	1981
RAFFLE, POND COLLECTION, WELCOME DESK	1157
TOTAL	13238

Expenses are around £800, mostly for photographic equipment, so we look to give the Neuromuscular charity a cheque for around £12500. It shows what can be done when we use our professional ability to its best effect. It started in August when Malcolm Hurst made the first of three presentations to Barton Grange – one of them at 8am. Each presentation had a 'bullet point' folder for each person and was then followed up by, what most people agree, was the most professional presentation made to the club.

Michael Lacey very quickly took over the logistics of organising the teams to follow up on our promises. Michael also held 'Master Classes' at his home on the use of the camera as that was seen as the danger point. He also attended almost every session.

To make the Grotto work we needed at least 50 people – we have 36 in the club. Yet again Rotary Wives came to our rescue, and also daughters, sons, golfing partners and friends. No one objected to wearing gaudy coats and crazy hats to make it a special day for the children. We needed 5 people on each shift. The biggest problem was that almost everyone wanted to give extra time and on most shifts we were overstaffed.

It would be nice to highlight individual efforts but the overall response was so magnificent that that would be unfair. We have a few weaknesses that can be straightened out next year to give an even better return, but I would like to close this year's Grotto by thanking all concerned, and to ask you to do one last thing for me.

Please thank all the non-Rotary volunteers and make them aware of the figures they helped to achieve.

Grotto reflections

Didn't we do well! Many congratulations to all the organisers, particularly to Herb and Malcolm – but we mustn't forget all those of us and our many willing helpers who collectively made this year's grotto such a success and great fun.

I was interested to read the following extract in the Daily Telegraph, which only goes to show how well our Santa(s) did:

Regrettably, Santa nowadays rarely survives the scepticism of the average five-year old. The material benefits in the pillowcase are still gratefully received but the sheer improbability of the logistics involved in carrying out his task poses an insuperable barrier to continuing faith in his existence.

The relevant calculations are as follows. There are nearly two billion children in the world, and excluding all those from Muslim, Jewish, Hindu or other cultures where Santa does not feature, that leaves approximately 600 million in 190 million households. Father Christmas has the advantage, when travelling on his sleigh from West to East across the globe, of chasing the dawn – which gives him just 31 hours to visit those 190 million homes. He would thus have to park the sleigh and get down the chimney and up again at the rate of 1390 homes per second.

All I know is that all the kids who came to our grotto got their presents just as they did last year (I checked with a sample to make sure!). As I remarked at the beginning didn't we do well?

and I know that the Neuromuscular Centre would agree with that!

Tsunami collection notes

1. Years ago when selling programmes for Bramhall festival I approached a chap and said - " Would you care to buy a programmes for Bramhall festival, sir ?" He replied - " Certainly not - I'm a vagrant".
2. I tend , when someone puts a donation in the tin to say - "That's very British of you ". This afternoon I did just that to a man who gave a five pound note. It was a bit gloomy and on looking at him saw that he was from the Indian continent. He looked at me a bit sideways.
3. Stephen Day was shaking his tin at the precinct entrance. A chap came and gave me a pound and said -"Who's that chap collecting down there - he looks familiar ". I said - "That's Stephen Day our ex MP. He hopes to get in again next time". The chap said with enthusiasm, " Well - he's certainly going about it the right way!?" He is too !

Meeting Reports

Wine tasting evening 24/11/04

The room was as full as it had ever been with 22 of us, 6 from Hazel Grove, 13 from Cheadle, 11 from Gatley, 3 guests and the speaker - a grand total of 55 - just a tad short of the room's maximum of 60.

Cheadle club, directed by Gilbert their 92-year-old choirmaster, led the singing of Rotary Grace.

David Yarrow of Yarrow Wines guided us through a sparkling Italian, two whites (French and South African –both Chardonnays), two reds (Chile and South Africa) and a port.

A lively question and answer session followed David's short talk after the meal ("why no mention of New Zealand" "of California" "what about screw tops" "what makes a wine good" etc).

Then a dozen or so retired to the bar for a glass or two of wine! Interestingly these were all from B&W!

Committee Night - Election of Officers: December 1

A bolt from the blue descended on the Club or was it a coincidence the electric power cut occurred around Chanukah (Jewish festival - the miracle of lights). Despite the table settings being in disarray, the lady chef aka Fanny by Gaslight miraculously produced a selection of hot meals with sustainable energy. A suggestion to chant Rotary Grace between each dish and keeping our jackets on was made by El President – alternative positions for protected intercourse!

The evening meandered on with committees huddled together, the giving of reports and nominating 2005/06 officers interspersed with Flower Pot man, David D (with permission of Hack Lane TV) bobbing up and down.

Ways and Means.

Our prudent Irish Chancellor gave us a detailed Grotto budget and reassured us that the Grotto economy was within predictions and within his Emerald fiscal rules.

International.

Henry reminded the club about a regular direct debit with gift aid forms to be signed and given to me for Rotary Foundation funds.

Community Service etc.

A pamphlet was circulated about sponsoring disabled people on a boat organised by the Jubilee Sailing Trust. I heard Lord Nelson mentioned. Is it Sid D? Help again was needed for collection at Morrisons' for Macmillan.

A member put forward Harry Hill as a nomination, his reply "I couldn't arrange a hiccup in the surgery" –whoops! The induction loop isn't tuned in properly.

Club Services.

The diary is fixed until April. Dennis planned a repeat of last year's post Xmas amble.

There are two new members and a few hopefuls.

Social.

Details of the Xmas Dinner at Bramhall Golf Club were explained especially how to get a 10% discount on drinks. First proposition a bona fide member with a swipe card and a good handicap and trap him/her into a bunker. The member then swings a chip into the pin and hope for a satisfactory result.

Future events were mentioned, the most outstanding was the big ladies day- out to Chester Races or the big day-out for ladies--place your bets for the correct one!

A weekend for the Edinburgh Tattoo was suggested, even though there is a tattoo parlour in Hillgate.

Elections.

As a responsible British Rotarian, the nominations and elections of officers were the fastest in the North West, 0–3 in 60 seconds despite the illegibility of the proposer signatures. Please don't complain about doctors' writing!

J. Thewlis - President T. Burch –Treasurer and poor Gordon Jackson, a member for five minutes, jumps the queue to V.P. D. Rabone to continue as noble Secretary. Well done and Good Luck to you all.

Finally, in apropos of nothing David Poizer rendered a spiel on the 2004 Annual Stella Artois Award (USA), now paraphrased.

"Mr.G. bought a new Motorhome and on journey along a freeway he set the cruise control at 70 mph, then went back to brew tea. The vehicle crashed and turned over. He sued the company and was awarded a large sum plus a new vehicle as the manual didn't advise him against leaving the driver's seat. The manual has been changed in case other morons purchased one."

Herb won the raffle and David R. performed the S of A.

Ronsam Management Consultants – 8th December

Despite the lateness of the hour, and the insobriety of the members, Sam Kennedy and Ron Malabon set us yet another cerebral challenge by imposing upon us a six exercise test designed to examine our intellectual skills. These included lateral thinking, memory and deduction (a bit like a school exam really) and we were divided into teams of 3. My team immediately went AWOL but after fierce and noisy competition the championship ultimately went to John Mould, Graham Yule and Gordon Jackson - the swots - but it was a keenly fought contest in the main. The "exotic prizes" on offer to the winners appeared to be pot piggy banks. Obviously gifts from the Club Treasurer. My team were disappointed, however, as we had put a special effort in to get the booby prize. In the event, none was awarded so we won't work as hard next time!

All the staff at the Ladybridge Residents Club have been gracious and welcoming hosts this year - and Chris, together with her young ladies have really looked after us well at the dinner table. Our thanks were passed on to them by President Michael who liberally distributed flowers and kisses - following which John Meeus (Past President) asked for his old job back!

Dennis Allport handed out his year-end bulletins which as ever were amusing, topical and full of humour as we head into the Christmas festivities (Dennis suggested I add that paragraph).

Stephen Day gave his usual consummate performance as Sergeant at Arms. There was simply no escape. One can imagine what he was like in the Lobby of the House of Commons.

Geoff (de Bono) Hunt.

Committees 5th January

Stephen Rowley was welcomed as a Guest of the International Committee to discuss the water filters project options for the coming year. Bob Stevenson was subjected to mass disapprobation at the instigation of John Mould due to his neither having paid nor sung for his supper until he finally succumbed and coughed up.

Membership : Bob Stevenson reported that a Prospective New Members day was planned in March. The 23rd was suggested but queried on the basis that this was the 1st week of the Easter fortnight. (Ed: this is now fixed for 20 April).

Kelvin suggested acquiring a sack full of bulbs for the Memorial Corner and confirmed that some kind of sign would be considered, this was not put up immediately to avoid encouraging miscreants from pulling up the shrubs before they were established.

Ways and Means: The Grotto raised £12,500 in direct contributions for the Muscular Dystrophy Centre plus approx £800 in sundry donations and £1,981 reclaimable via Gift Aid. Everyone seemed to think the whole operation was highly successful and we have been invited back next year. Harry Hill confessed that he thought we were all “Barking” when a target figure of £10,000 was proposed during Malcolm’s awe inspiring presentation. Harry was excused the doghouse for this Lesse’ Majesty out of residual Christmas bonhomie.

Warning for next years Santas: When the camera broke down, Santa Graham V stalled by explaining to children that Rudolf was a cheeky Reindeer who used to nick Santa’s mince pie and leave Santa the carrot if he, Rudolf, considered Santa was getting too fat. This caused some hilarity, but if some of next years children say they will leave a mince pie for Rudolf, don’t blow the gaff by insisting that Rudolf only eats carrots!

PRO: Stephen mentioned that the announcement of the grotto collections would have to be dealt with sensitively at a time when everyone else was pre occupied with the Pacific disaster collections.

Community Service: 40 shoeboxes were required for Bramhall High School Collections.

Cancer appeals assisted by Rotary raised £3240 at Tesco in October, reputedly the highest sum ever raised in such a collection. Later collection at Morrisons , Cheadle Heath raised a further £845.

International: Henry Barker explained that Friday and Saturday were to be Disaster Day and had obtained permission to collect in the Precinct.

Steve Rowley visited to explain progress on Water Filter Project in Kenya. 2 new projects set up last year at Awasi and Simbi at a total cost of £3,497 and a new project in March 2005 is planned for Eldoret/Langas expected to cost £2,500. They hope to be able to branch out into Rwanda in Summer 2005 as there are major needs in this country. As they don’t have the same level of “on the ground” voluntary assistance as was available in Kenya this is expected to cost £5,000 for “ex pat” travel and supervision costs on top of the £2,500 - £3000 for the equipment and around £250 for a local care worker. Henry Barker to discuss in Council whether we wish to try and fund this £8,000 project in addition to the Africa Hope and Homes project.

Graham Vine

VP to be tells all on 12th January!

A moderate turnout was welcomed by President Michael who then proceeded to abuse our guest before announcing the sterling efforts of Henry and team over the previous weekend had resulted in over £1350 being raised for the Rotary Tsunami Appeal. Later, John Mould announced that there were no non-apologies.

After the Loyal Toast, Sid informed us of his campaign to clean-up the British media, and how we could join in through a group called Media Watch. Sid distributed a leaflet and a letter to The Times wot he wrote.

The highlight of the evening was a humorous address by Rtn. Gordon Jackson outlining his career to date. Unfortunately, a large portion of it is not repeatable in a family oriented periodical such as this. But, undeterred, and for the benefit of those who weren't there, I can offer some key words and phrases in case you want to find out more from someone who was there.

- Gordon has always been interested in engineering and chemistry, which manifested in bomb making and the near destruction of his childhood home.
- Nut screws washer & bolts.
- David Poizer vibrators
- Sailors
- Gordon spent some time at teaching electronics at ICL, the computer company, where it turns out we were both employed at the West Gorton site at the same time. Turtle heads, socks, night porter.
- Gordon then saw which way the wind was blowing and left ICL to start lecturing in vocational subjects at Openshaw College, where he developed an interest in Turkey and its people.
- Gordon currently teaches staff at Tameside Hospital to use IT.

To round of the evening Bob Stevenson told a joke, Tony Burch won the raffle, and Richard Taylor was Sergeant-at-Arms.

What were we doing?

15 years ago -Jan /Feb 1990

President Douglas Murphy had enjoyed both the Beaujolais supper and the Christmas Party with entertainment written by our "new librettist" ably assisted by "his talented wardrobe mistress". We also had an excellent President's Night at the "19th hole of the Adlington Golf Club" although his plus-fours didn't fit.

Roy's Race Night had raised £1000, which with grants from Rotary Foundation and Overseas Development Agency, had enabled us to commit £4000 to a Wateraid project near Calcutta

We had a visit to Capenhurst with no ill-effects and three Edwardian Gentlemen, their Ladies and a horse brought Christmas cheer to the Precinct. (Yes we did have pictures in the bulletin before the digital age!).

Finally there were congratulations to Rob and Denise Moulton on the birth of their daughter Katy.

10 years ago -Jan/Feb 1995

President Kelvin was enjoying his year having beaten John Mould and Tony Burch in a golf challenge (playing one against 2?).

This was the first year of the Grotto. Jack Carson won a competition recognising Bill Middlehurst as FC because he hadn't taken his welding goggles off.

There was a plea to visit Ralph in Hospital and we said goodbye to Hugh Thompson with the gift of a station for his model railway layout.

A pregnant Irish woman falls into a coma after a car crash. After a year she wakes up to find she's given birth to twins, a boy and a girl. 'Where are they?' She asks. 'It's all right,' says the doctor, 'your brother came and took them. He's had them baptised and everything.' 'Oh, no, not my brother,' says the woman. 'He's such an idiot. What did he call them?' 'Well, he named your daughter Denise...' Says the doctor. 'Oh, that's nice,' says the mother, '...and he called your son Denephew.'

The headmistress of a girls school asks the local vicar to give her pupils a talk on Christianity and sex. The vicar is happy to do this but doesn't want to upset his prudish wife so he tells her he'll be giving the girls a talk on sailing. A week later the headmistress meets the vicar's wife in the street and tells her what a good talk her husband gave. 'I can't imagine it was that good,' says the wife. 'He's only ever done it twice. The first time he was sick, and the second time his hat blew off.'
